The Wise Decision, the Victorious Result, the Great Significance

—— to Commemorate the 70th Anniversary of the Chinese People's Volunteers to the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea ..... Qi Dexue ( 4 )

Abstract: In the history of the People's Republic of China and the history of the Chinese nation since modern times, the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea is the most proud, memorable and greatest war. This war was imposed on the Chinese people by the American authorities. The decision of dispatching troops is made by the Central Committee of the CPC in the face of the extremely difficult circumstances, is the wise strategic decision in order to support Korean people against the American invasion and maintain China's national interests, the scientific decision made on the basis of comprehensively analyzing the conditions on both sides, the brave decision embodied the CPC people's revolutionary courage and boldness of vision and the practical decisions based on striving to achieve the best results at the worst possible situation. Although the two sides differed greatly in terms of economic strength and military weapons and equipments, the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea achieved a great victory no matter from which point of view. The victory of this war is of great significance to China, to Korea, to the East and to the whole world.

A Shining Example of Daring to Struggle and Being Good at Struggle

—— to Commemorate the 70th Anniversary of the Chinese People's Volunteers to the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea ..... Nie Wenting ( 20 )

Abstract: The War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea is a glorious chapter of daring to struggle and being good at struggle in New China. Faced with the armed intervention of US in the war, the Central Committee of the CPC made active preparations for the military struggle with tough will to fight, accurately positioned the objectives of the struggle and resolutely made the wise decision to form the Chinese People's Volunteer Army to fight in the DPRK according to the development trend of the war. On the Korean battlefield, under the leadership and command of the Central Committee of the CPC and the Central Military Commission, the Chinese People's Volunteers won the initiative in the war by their superb fighting skills and fought military and political battles with the tenacious fighting spirit together with the people of the whole country and finally won a great victory in the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea.

Review on the History of the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea in the Past Decade ..... Shi Shantao ( 33 )

Abstract: The history of the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea is a developing field of academic research. In the past decade, the research on traditional issues such as decision making, military strategy and the significance of war had been enriched, consolidated and deepened. At the same time, the research perspectives of scholars have also been increasingly broadened showing a multi-dimensional feature. On the one hand, this manifests the different degrees of improvement on the quantity and quality in publishing, books and academic papers published, on the other hand, it emerges a series of innovative achievements in decision-making, the movement, character study, evaluation and historical significance, local history research, criticize the historical nihilism of the War to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea. However, there are also some problems in the research, such as unbalanced research forces, excessive reliance on foreign archives and literature and relatively single research models, all which need to be improved in future research.

National Model Workers Commendation in the 1980s and its Value of the Times ..... Yao Li ( 48 )

Abstract: In the 1980s, the national model workers were commended for six consecutive annual awards and one large-scale commendation. The model workers commendation not only gathered energy for the reform and opening-up in an all-round way, but also injected vitality into the construction of socialist spiritual civilization. In 1989, the name, scale, time and place of the commendation conference for model workers were unified and fixed, the scope of commendation objects was expanded and unified; the commendation of the organizational procedures got further clarified and improved, the way of commendation was restored to be the combination of spiritual reward and material reward, and the commendation system of model workers was preliminarily finalized. The model workers are the elite of the nation, the backbone of the country, the backbone of society and the role model of the people. The model worker spirit has always been the source of the strength for the Chinese people to create happy life and promote social development.

Study on the United Front Work in Land Reform in the Early of New China——Focus on

Democratic Personage's Visit to the Countryside About Land Reform ..... Zhang Zhisen ( 72 )

Abstract: The united front is one of the three magic weapons for the CPC to defeat the enemy in the Chinese revolution. In the early of New China, after the Land Reform Movement began, some democratic personage showed their fantasy of “peaceful land reform” or attitudes of “doubt, dissatisfaction and even conflict”. In order to expand and consolidate the broadest anti-feudal united front, reduce resistance to Land Reform, educate and guide democratic personage and improve their ideological consciousness, the Central Committee of the CPC issued an instruction to organize democratic personage to visit Land Reform in the countryside. Under the leadership of the CPC Central Committee, local Party committees, governments organized a large number of democratic personage to visit Land Reform in the countryside. During their visit, the democratic personage were deeply educated, their attitudes towards Land Reform changed fundamentally and they upheld and supported Land Reform one after another, which expanded and consolidated the broadest anti-feudal united front and ensured the smooth completion of Land Reform task.

Research on the Legislative Activities of the US Congress Concerning China

From 1949 to 1960····· Guo Yonghu & Bao Zhanjie ( 115 )

Abstract: After the founding of New China, the US Congress put forward a large number of China-related bills to get involved in China’s affairs. From 1949 to 1960, the main contents of the legislative activities concerning China in the US Congress included: required the US government to refuse to recognize New China and obstruct the restoration of New China’s lawful seat in the United Nations; gather the major western capitalist countries to implement a comprehensive blockade and embargo against China; provided economic assistance and armed protection to the Taiwan authorities to interfere with the resolution of the Taiwan issue by the CPC. The legislative activities related to China in the US Congress reflected its hostile stance and comprehensive containment strategy towards New China and its negative effects couldn’t be ignored.

A Study on the Propaganda Work of Compulsory Military Service

in 1949 —1956 ······ Liu Jinwei & Li Yanyan ( 126 )

Abstract: In the early of New China, by combining the specific works of militia construction, military service legislation and conscription the Party and the Government promoted compulsory military service step by step and laid a social foundation for the reform of the military service system. In the militia construction, based on the universal militia system and the basic militia system, the Party and the Government initially propagandized the content of the compulsory military service to the people and proposed the transition from the militia system to the compulsory military service. The publicity and discussion of The Military Service Law of the People's Republic of China (The Amended Draft) further popularized the knowledge of compulsory military service. In order to promote the implementation of the compulsory military service, in the conscription work of 1954 and 1955, the Party and the Government propagandized the compulsory military service with emphasis and eliminated the ideological concerns of the young people of the right age for military service about the compulsory military service. The propaganda work of compulsory military service had aroused the people's enthusiasm to support the national defense construction, helped to establish the national defense consciousness of serving the military according to the law and promoted the establishment and implementation of the compulsory military service system.

Mobilization of Migrant Workers in the Construction of Minor Third Line

in Shandong Province ..... Liu Bensen & Liu Shibin ( 136 )

Abstract: Migrant workers were the important participants in the infrastructure construction of Shandong's Minor Third Line. From 1965 to 1967, the first step in the construction of Minor Third Line in Shandong Province was to mobilize and organize migrant workers. The mobilization and selection of migrant workers were mainly completed by counties, districts, communes and the production teams under their jurisdiction and implemented by semi-military management, the selection principle showed the characteristics of strong political nature, localization and emphasis on skilled workers. In the construction process, through ideological education, labor competition, standardized labor remuneration and other ways the construction site leaders carried out further mobilization of migrant workers and stimulated their labor enthusiasm. Through the continuous improvement of migrant workers mobilization, the potential of migrant workers had been fully tapped and the construction of Shandong's Minor Third Line had been carried out smoothly.
